

Royal Borough of Greenwich is inviting public representations on the Draft Planning Guidance Note for the Ashburnham Triangle Conservation Area Article 4 Direction. In May 2014 a new Article 4 Direction was introduced for the Ashburnham Triangle Conservation Area. Consequently, the previous direction was revoked, so that the guidance note that accompanied it became obsolete. This new Article 4 Direction Guidance Note is therefore intended to replace the previous guidance note published in 1995.

The draft Guidance Note SPD identifies the properties that are covered by the Article 4 Direction and sets out the specific planning controls under the Direction. The document also explains the types of works that will be likely or unlikely to gain planning permission.

The consultation is open from 1 February to 14 March 2016. Copies of the document are available to view:

- On the Council's website www.royalgreenwich.gov.uk
- At the Council's principal office (address below)
- At the following Royal Greenwich libraries (times below):

Adoption of the Planning Guidance Note for the Ashburnham Triangle Conservation Area Article 4 Direction

All representations made in accordance with timescale, methods and scope of the Planning Guidance Note will be considered. The Council will prepare a statement setting out a summary of the main issues raised and how these issues have been addressed in the Guidance which the Council intends to adopt. The adopted Planning Guidance Note will be published on the Greenwich website and a copy will be made available for inspection at the Woolwich Centre. Anyone who submits a representation can request that they are subsequently notified of the adoption of the Planning Guidance Note at a specified email or postal address.
